PROGRAMME CONTENT

- Students at this level have good access to a broad range of language, which allows fluent, spontaneous and almost effortless communication. They have a good command of a broad lexical repertoire allowing gaps to be readily overcome with circumlocutions.
- There is little obvious searching for expressions or avoidance strategies; only a conceptually difficult subject can hinder a natural, smooth flow of language. The discourse skills characterising the previous band continue to be evident at this level, with an emphasis on more fluency.
- They are able to select a suitable phrase from a fluent repertoire of discourse functions to preface remarks in order to get the floor, or to gain time and keep it whilst thinking.
- They can produce clear, smooth-flowing, wellstructured speech, showing controlled use of organisational patterns, connectors and cohesive devices. Global: At this level of proficiency, students should be able to understand a wide range of demanding, longer texts, and recognise implicit meaning.
- They can express themselves fluently and spontaneously without much obvious searching for expressions. They can use language flexibly and effectively for social, academic and professional purposes. They can produce clear, well-structured, detailed text on complex subjects, showing controlled use of organisational patterns, connectors and cohesive devices.
